Mas d'Auzières

Located in the Pic Saint Loup, North of Montpellier, Mas d'Auzières is a 12 hectares domain near Guzargues, including 9 hectares of appellation.

The vineyard spreads over a slight hill of chalk, and rocks, in a very natural and wild environment surrounded by scrubland. Climate is generally very cool. Thanks to the Pic Saint Loup circus, it keeps all the cold winds coming from Massif Central mountains.

Mas d'Auzières belongs to Irène and Philippe Tolleret, who do their best to protect the fruit and characteristics of their terroir, in order to produce pleasant wines with a Rock and Roll touch.
